MEXICAN TROUBLES ARE GROWING WORSE; WARSHIP ON COAST

Admiral Howard Not to Land Force Unless That Is Necessary to Save Lives.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The acute Mexican situation threatened today to interfere with President Wilson's hopes of a brief vacation, commencing the latter part of this week.

Reports from every section of the troubled republic indicate that conditions were growing rapidly worse. Carranza seemed to have been practically eliminated as a factor, his villa having been taken by Obregon. Villa appeared definitely to have broken with Felipe Angeles, and the latter, looked on for some time as a possible important figure in a new regime, was reported in the United States.

Acting Secretary Lansing said Gen. Angeles was on his way to Boston. It is likely Angeles will stop here.

The American warship Colorado, with a marine battalion, in readiness for action, was off the Mexican west coast. Gen. Maytorena, Villa's commander there, had declared he would attack any American landing expedition. Admiral Howard, in command, has elastic orders.

It was said he would not try to land unless convinced his men's presence absolutely necessary to save foreigners' lives from the Yaquis.

Reports to the Red Cross showed the food situation much worse than even early estimates indicated. Officials who have investigated have reported direct to headquarters here that unless food is rushed immediately to a score of points in Mexico many hundreds, mostly women and children, will die.

Consul Silliman, at Vera Cruz, confirmed Carranza agency reports of the acceptance of the resignations of four members of the Carranza Cabinet and added that their successors would be appointed this week.

The four who resigned are Luis Cabrera, Raphael Zubaran, Escudero Verdugo and Jesus Urusita. Cabrera and Zubaran at various times had represented the Carranza faction in Washington.

Gen. Carranza says there is no truth in reports of a break between himself and Gen. Obregon.

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, GUAYMAS, Mexico, June 20 (via radio to San Diego, Cal., June 21).

Fighting was reported to-day along the Yaqui River north of the American settlements, indicating that Villa's troops are now beginning active operations against the Yaqui Indians. The Colorado arrived here last night to protect Americans if the Mexican forces prove unable to stop depredations of the Indians.

Carranza troops are advancing from Northern Sinaloa against the forces of Gen. Maytorena. Burned bridges north of Guaymas undoubtedly delay the transportation of Villa's troops from Northern Sinaloa to operate against the advancing forces of Carranza.

SAFE ROBBERS GET $350.

United Cigar Store Is Burglarized Second Time.

Safe crackers early to-day gained entrance to the United Cigar Store at No. 12 Delaney Street, carried a small safe into the basement, ripped it open and escaped with $350. Three months ago a safe in the same store was robbed of $100 in a similar manner.

The robbery was reported to the police by Harry Lewis, clerk in the place, who found things turned upside down when he opened for business this morning.

MAYOR GOES TO ALBANY TO DEMAND HOME RULE

Will Appear Before Constitutional Convention With Frank Polk and President McAneny.

Accompanied by Corporation Counsel Frank Lyon Polk, Mayor Mitchell will leave to-night for Albany and tomorrow afternoon will appear before the Constitutional Convention in behalf of home rule for the City of New York. Aldermanic President McAneny, who is resting at his summer home, Lake George, will join the Mayor and Corporation Counsel at Albany.

To-morrow night the Mayor will be dinner guest of former Mayor Seth Low, Chairman of the Cities Committee of the Convention. Mayor Mitchell will be back Wednesday.

The Mayor did not reach the City Hall until afternoon. In company with Comptroller Prendergast, Borough President Pounds of Brooklyn and Dock Commissioner Smith, he made an inspection trip along the South Brooklyn water-front, discussing contemplated port and terminal betterments.

NEEDS PERIODICAL JAG.

ELWOOD, Ind., June 21.—The usual order of procedure was reversed when Alvey Brown was looked up here sober.

"My health is delicate," he told officials at Police Headquarters, where he appeared holding a quart bottle of whiskey aloft. "My system requires that I get drunk once every three months. To save you the trouble and myself inconvenience, I suggest you lock me and my bottle together in a cell right now."

He found the place filled with gas and Pluckebaum dead, upright in a chair, the end of gas tube, connected with an open jet in his mouth. He was identified by papers in his pockets. Friends said he had grieved constantly over the death of his wife last April after an operation.

There Is No Secret About This Remedy For Skin Troubles

Cadum ointment, for eczema and other skin troubles, is one of the very few preparations that is not secret. A list of its ingredients is printed upon every box. One ingredient is oil of cade, which is recognized by doctors as being one of the best things known for eczema. Another ingredient is zinc oxide, which dries up the water that forms upon sore places on the skin. Two other ingredients are petrolatum and white wax, which make a covering to protect these sore spots from the air and water. People who have itched and scratched for years get immediate relief after the first application. Trial box, 10c. Large box, 25c.—Advt.

A Great Victory For You! The United States District Court Sustains the Receiver In Selling Goods Below Cost!

BROOKLYN CITIZEN. SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1915. UPHOLD MATTHEWS LOW PRICE SALE Court Gives Receiver Right To Fix Prices.

BROOKLYN TIMES. JUNE 19, 1915. MATTHEWS CAN SELL BELOW COST S. Court Decides Receiver Cannot Be Restricted. FAR REACHING Disgruntled Creditors Denied.

Through a voluntary petition, a considerable amount of the assets of the receiver, A. D. Matthews' Sons, Inc., were sold at a price below cost. The receiver, John J. Kuhn, has been authorized by the United States District Court to sell the goods at a price below cost. The court's decision is a great victory for the receiver and the creditors.

The right of the receiver in bankruptcy to determine what prices shall be asked for stock, notwithstanding the opinion of the creditors, has been definitely established. In an opinion handed down yesterday, Judge Veeder of the United States District Court, found that John J. Kuhn, receiver of A. D. Matthews' Sons, Inc., alleged bankrupt, was within his rights in selling merchandise of the Oriental Slipper Mfg. Co. at less than cost.

Advertisements had been inserted in numerous newspapers to the effect that much of the stock of A. D. Matthews' Sons, Inc., was being sold at a price below cost. Representatives of the slipper concern investigated and found this was so.

A petition to Judge Veeder for an injunction to restrain the receiver from selling the goods of this firm at less than cost followed. It was upon this petition that Judge Veeder ruled yesterday.

The opinion is thought to establish a precedent for receivers. In opposing the petition, Mr. Kuhn contended he was selling the goods at less than cost, but he contended that his receivership gave him the right to do so. He said he believed it necessary for the proper conduct of the business and that it was essential that the stock be turned into cash as soon as possible. The Court upholds him in his contention.

We don't print items for you know what big savings to expect.

Thousands of items prepared for tomorrow, Tuesday.

HERE are reproductions of the clippings taken from Saturday's newspapers. They tell the story of the victory gained for you by the Receiver in Bankruptcy for A. D. Matthews' Sons, Inc.

The Oriental Slipper Mfg. Co. brought a test suit to restrain the Receiver from selling below cost goods purchased by A. D. Matthews' Sons, before the petition of Bankruptcy was filed.

JUDGE VEEDER OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT sustained the Receiver in selling the goods at any price he deemed wise.

Cash must be immediately raised for the rearrangement of this business, so the Receiver is sacrificing prices to accomplish that purpose.

You therefore have the opportunity of buying high grade, seasonable merchandise at prices that would be simply impossible under ordinary conditions.
